HJOULA, LEBANON

A mountain setting for memorable gatherings.

Stone halls. Open terraces. Your occasion.

1,000 m

Three settings, one horizon

Hand-laid stone, timber ceilings and west-facing terraces.
Find the setting for each part of your gathering.

01 / THE GRAND HALL

Beneath the arches

A sweeping stone arcade beneath a timber roof, opening onto the terrace and the view.

Ceremonies, dinners and larger gatherings.

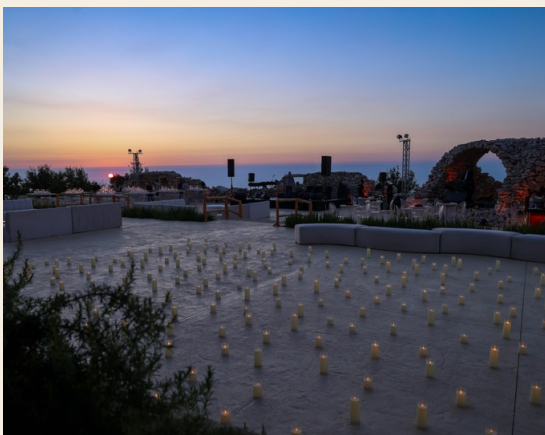

02 / THE VAULTED ROOM

Around one table

A barrel-vaulted chamber with a fireplace and a long table for a closer gathering.

Private dinners, board retreats and intimate celebrations.

03 / THE TERRACE AND RUINS

Under an open sky

Open-air stone terraces among old dry-stone ruins, facing west towards the sunset.

Welcome drinks, receptions and golden-hour gatherings.

From the welcome to the afterparty

Ceremonies beneath the arches. A reception on the terrace.
Then carry the celebration indoors.
